Grant Types: Capital Improvement, General Operating or Project/Program Support

Primary Areas: It is easier to say what we don't fund – We don't fund faith based religious organizations; we don't give grants to individuals, pay tuition, give scholarships or do sponsorships; we don't give funds to school booster clubs, fraternities, sororities or to organizations like the Rotary and Lions Clubs, or to endowments or other private Foundations; we don't give to emergency disaster funds; we don't do emergency loans or grants or contracts for services. Since we have one grant cycle we rarely are able to help with Challenge or Matching grants. We attempt to keep the grants local, in line with the interests of the founder and we only consider grants to 509(a) organizations with a proper IRS Determination Letter and other legal documents.

How to Apply: Grant Applications are Invitation Only and are thus not available to be downloaded or obtained randomly. When the Foundation has an interest it contacts the nonprofit. However a nonprofit could send a very brief letter of introduction explaining mission and needs. This letter would be placed in a file that is reviewed annually. If there is an interest during a future grant cycle, then Foundation would contact the nonprofit.
